

Peter Löscher

- President and Chief Executive Officer of Siemens AG
- born on September 17, 1957 in Villach, Austria

Education

- Secondary school (baccalaureate)
- Studied economics at Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration and Chinese University of Hong Kong
- Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration, MBA
- Harvard Business School, AMP

Professional History

1985

- Kienbaum Consulting Group
 - Senior Management Consultant

1988

- Hoechst group
 - Various management positions in Spain, the U.S., Germany, the UK and Japan

2000

- Aventis Pharma Ltd., Japan
 - Chairman, President and CEO

2002

- Amersham plc (acquired by General Electric)
 - President of Amersham Health and Member of the Board of Directors (UK)
 - Chief Operating Officer and Member of the Board of Directors (UK)

2004

- General Electric Company (GE)
 - President and CEO of GE Healthcare Bio-Sciences. GE Healthcare (UK)
 - Member of the Corporate Executive Council

2006

- Merck & Co., Inc.
 - President of Global Human Health

July 2007

- Siemens AG
 - President and Chief Executive Officer

Positions

- President of the Council of the Siemens Stiftung
- Member of the Supervisory Board of Münchener Rückversicherungs-Gesellschaft AG, Munich